

SDG Spring 2025 Meeting

Afternoon of Thursday 27th and Morning of Friday 28th March 2025

Aging pains: navigating the complexities of adult skeletal dysplasia

To be held Virtually over Zoom

Thursday – Afternoon Session

13:25 Welcome

13:30 Transition to adult care: Mr Stephen Giles (TBC), Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon, Sheffield Children's Hospital

13:45 Pregnancy with a skeletal dysplasia: Dr Charlotte Frise, Consultant Obstetric Physician, Queen Charlotte & Chelsea Hospital, London

14:25 OI in adults: Dr Jannie Dahl Hald, Department of Endocrinology and Internal Medicine & Centre for Rare Diseases, Aarhus University Hospital, Denmark

15:05 Break

15:25 Hypophosphatasia in adults: Dr Katie Moss, Consultant Rheumatologist, St George's Hospital, London

16:05 Adult Rare Bone Disease Network/RUDY: Professor Kassim Javaid, Professor of Osteoporosis and Adult Rare Bone Diseases, Oxford

16:45 Close

Friday – Morning Session

09:00 Welcome

09:05 X-linked hypophosphatemia in adults: Professor Peter Kamenicky,
University Paris-Saclay, France

09:45 Spinal surgery in adult skeletal dysplasia: Professor Adrian Gardner,
Aston University and Royal Orthopaedic Hospital, Birmingham

10:25 Break

10:40 Radiology of adult genetic skeletal conditions: Speaker TBC

11:20 Sport, exercise and therapies in adult skeletal dysplasia: Sophie
Barlow, Highly specialised physiotherapist, RNOH

12:00 Patient perspective-living with a genetic skeletal condition, followed by Q&A

12:30 Close