

SDG Spring 2025 Meeting

Aging pains: navigating the complexities of adult skeletal dysplasia

To be held Virtually over Zoom

Afternoon of Thursday 27th and Morning of Friday 28th March 2025

Thursday – Afternoon Session

13:25 Welcome

13:30 Transition to adult care: Mr Stephen Giles (TBC), Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon, Sheffield Children's Hospital

13:45 Pregnancy with a skeletal dysplasia: Dr Charlotte Frise, Consultant Obstetric Physician, Queen Charlotte & Chelsea Hospital, London

14:25 Osteogenesis Imperfecta in adults: Dr Jannie Dahl Hald, Department of Endocrinology and Internal Medicine & Centre for Rare Diseases, Aarhus University Hospital, Denmark

15:05 Break

15:25 Hypophosphatasia in adults: Dr Katie Moss, Consultant Rheumatologist, St George's Hospital, London

16:00 Aging in genetic skeletal disease: Dr Terry Aspray, Consultant in Metabolic Bone Disease, Newcastle

16:30 Adult Rare Bone Disease Network/RUDY: Professor Kassim Javaid, Professor of Osteoporosis and Adult Rare Bone Diseases, Oxford

17:00 Close

Friday – Morning Session

09:00 Welcome

09:10 X-linked hypophosphatemia in adults: Professor Peter Kamenicky, University Paris-Saclay, France

09:50 Spinal surgery in adult skeletal dysplasia: Professor Adrian Gardner, Aston University and Royal Orthopaedic Hospital, Birmingham

10:25 Break

10:45 Radiology of adult genetic skeletal conditions: Dr Alessandro Vidoni, Consultant Musculoskeletal Radiologist, Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital

11:20 Sport, exercise and therapies in adult skeletal dysplasia: Sophie Barlow, Highly specialised physiotherapist, RNOH

11:55 Break

12:00 Patient perspective-living with a genetic skeletal condition, followed by Q&A: Thines Ganeshamoorthy, co-chair Adult Rare Bone Disease Network and Trustee Brittle Bone Society and Sally Harris, Member Brittle Bone Society, lay person Brittle Bone Society medical advisory board and trained counsellor

12:30 Close